

Write a composition on the following topic:

I could not imagine living without my...

Think of a thing or a person very important to you and explain why it is so.